

Note on security arrangements

as of 9 November 2023

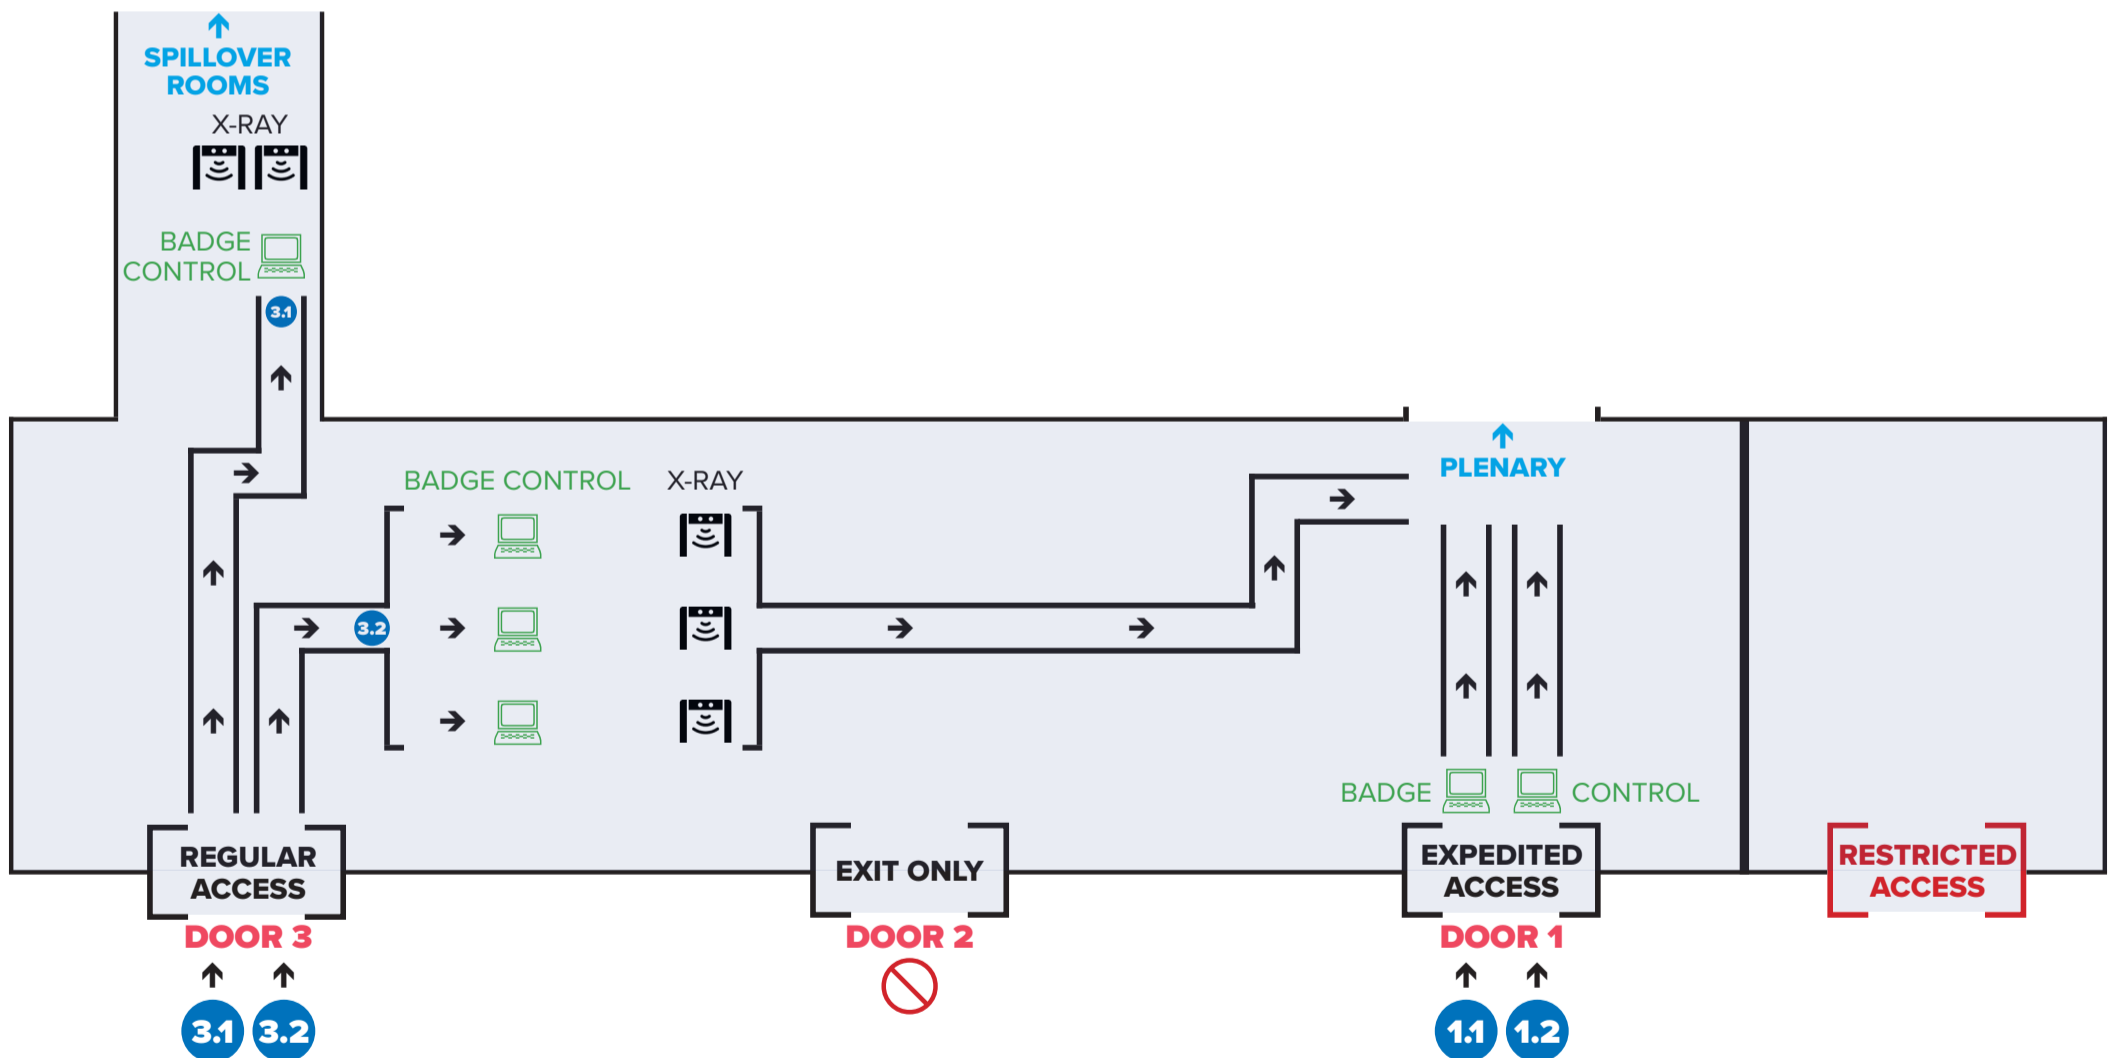

All participants, including those with a UN Office at Geneva (UNOG) ID badge, must register online through the Indico link provided by UNHCR to invited participants.

Upon verification of their invitation status, participants will be accredited and receive an electronic event badge containing a QR code.

Participants will be required to show their electronic event badge on their mobile device at the entrance to Palexpo. Alternatively, a printed copy of the QR code may be used.

Participants will have to pass through security. Multiple entry points will be established to help direct participants and facilitate their entry in an efficient and timely manner.

ENTRY POINTS – 13 DECEMBER

3.1 Participants with Indico electronic badge (e-badge)

3.2 Participants with Indico e-badge + plenary badge

1.1 Participants with Indico e-badge + UNOG badge + plenary badge

1.2 Participants with yellow Indico e-badge + plenary badge

E-badge • electronic badge that invited participants receive after being approved in Indico

UNOG badge • official grounds pass issued by the United Nations Office at Geneva

Plenary badge • badge to access plenary room; see pg. 2 for more information

SPECIAL PROCEDURES – 13 DECEMBER

Due to the participation of high-level dignitaries on 13 December, heightened security measures will be put in place.

Access to the plenary will be restricted to those in possession of a plenary badge.

The venue will open as of 7:00 a.m., and participants attending the plenary session are advised to arrive early in order to avoid long queues.

PLENARY BADGES

The plenary badge will be:

- Physical
- Non-nominative (transferable between delegation members but requires re-entry through security)
- Issued in addition to the electronic Indico event badge

Due to limited seating, plenary badges will be distributed as follows:

- STATES → 2 per delegation
- ALL OTHER STAKEHOLDERS → 1 per delegation / individual

PLENARY BADGES COLLECTION

WHO?

States will be provided with a package of 2 plenary badges each. They may be picked up by a representative of the Permanent Missions, who will be asked to show ID and sign for them.

Other participants based in Geneva may also pick up their plenary badge and will be asked to show ID and sign for it.

Other stakeholders not based in Geneva will receive their plenary badge from their stakeholder focal point.
