Arrangements for Burden and Responsibility Sharing

- Funding and the effective and efficient use of resources through strengthening the humanitarian development nexus in refugee responses, expanding the base of financing beyond traditional donors, and identifying opportunities to continue maximizing the quality, effectiveness, and efficiency of funding.
- Support platforms and regional and sub-regional approaches to protect, assist, and find solutions for specific refugee situations and galvanize support for host communities.
- Reliable, comparable, and timely data for evidence-based policies, programmes, and investments that improve socio-economic conditions for refugees and host communities.
- Prevention and addressing root causes, in line with ongoing efforts in the areas of prevention, peace, security, sustainable development, migration, and peacebuilding.

Education

1. Inclusion

Commit to including refugee children and youth in national education systems to benefit from increased access to the full cycle of quality primary and secondary education

2. Access to tertiary education

Commit to increasing access to accredited tertiary education and skills training, and eliminating systemic policy barriers

3. Emergency Response

Provide timely and amplified education responses in emergencies that strengthen local education systems and support hosting communities to facilitate refugee inclusion

Protection Capacity

Vision

Strong institutions and capacities that can enable and enhance refugee protection and the well-being of host communities with the support from a range of actors

1. Enhanced emergency preparedness and response: Enhance capacities in emergency preparedness and response by contributing technical expertise, appropriate tools and priority resources for effective risk analysis, early warning, contingency planning, reception and admission.

2. Legal and Policy Frameworks: Refugee rights are promoted and incorporated in relevant legislation and policy directives (e.g. labor, social protection, freedom of movement); the 1951 Convention/1967 Protocol (refugees) as well as 1954 and/or 1961 Convention (statelessness) are ratified/acceded, reservations are removed and national legislations are in place.

3. Strong protection institutions: Strengthen national capacities for civil registration and documentation, social welfare, specialized protection services, justice, safety and security.

4. Better Asylum Capacity: Support the Asylum Capacity Support Group to ensure national asylum/RSD systems are put in place and operate with fairness, efficiency, adaptability and integrity.

5. Participation and Inclusion: Support refugee-led initiatives and, when programming responses to refugee situations, ensure the participation, inclusion, accountability to and empowerment of refugee communities and individuals as well as of those hosting them, with an age, gender and diversity (including disability) lens.

Solutions

The Strategy has an ambitious yet realistic vision

VISION STATEMENT

Third country solutions for refugees are expanded so that by the end of 2028, 3 million refugees benefit from effective protection and solutions through resettlement (1 million) in 50 resettlement countries and complementary pathways (2 million).

The vision in numbers

Third country solutions for 3 million refugees by the end of 2028

The three dimensions of the vision

BETTER PROTECTION AND QUALITY

Maximizing the protection impact and quality of resettlement and complementary pathways

Improving the protection focus and impact of programmes and the quality of solutions that benefit refugees and host communities

MORE ACTORS

Expansion of the base of actors engaged in resettlement and complementary pathways

The engagement of an expanded range of countries and other stakeholders in resettlement and complementary pathways.

MORE PLACES

Expansion of the scope and size of resettlement and complementary pathways

Sustainable and predictable growth in the scope and size of resettlement and complementary pathways opportunities

Key outcomes of the GRF that can support the goals of the Strategy

1. More actors

- Engaging new countries in resettlement and complementary pathways
- Financial and technical support to new and emerging resettlement countries, including through the new UNHCR-IOM initiative
- Engagement of an expanded range of stakeholders in resettlement and complementary pathways

2. More places

- Expanding the size of existing resettlement programmes
- Establishing or expanding complementary pathways
- Facilitating refugee access to complementary pathways

3. Better protection and quality

- Expanding diversity and responsiveness of programmes, including through the establishment of urgent/emergency processing
- Support the integration of refugees, including through policy changes and engaging local communities and citizens in integration efforts
- Complementary pathways include protection-safeguards and are solutions oriented

Responsibilities of Co-sponsors

- Focus on priorities for mobilization of contributions and identification of good practices
- Develop and communicate key messages
- Develop and implement work plan
- Advise on the development of the high-level ministerial session and side events
