

Side event of the 70th session of the Executive Committee

Durable solutions through (re)integration: what it takes

Moderated by Mr. Jérôme Elie, Senior Policy Officer on Forced Displacement,
International Council of Voluntary Agencies (ICVA)

Speakers:

Ms. Brooke Lauten, Humanitarian Policy and Protection Advisor, Norwegian Refugee Council

Ms. Aurélie Lamazière, Senior Humanitarian Advocacy Adviser, Save the Children

Mr. Zubair Gharghasht, Director and Co-founder, Afghan Voice CIC

As the international community prepares to intensify efforts to find durable solutions for refugees on the occasion of the Global Refugee Forum (GRF), this side event will shed light on perspectives and projects of non-governmental organizations (NGOs) that underpin these endeavours. Panellists will present their analysis and insights on what successful (re)integration could look like, as well as the operational challenges faced in achieving this. NGOs wish to engage State representatives, refugee delegates and civil society in a discussion with a view to proposing concrete contributions on durable solutions to be made at the GRF.

Friday, 11 October 2019

9:00-10:00

Palais des Nations – Room V

Interpretation will be provided in English and French.
Breakfast will be served outside of the room.
