For 66 years, UNHCR's Nansen Refugee Award has honoured extraordinary individuals and groups that have courageously gone beyond the call of duty to help refugees or stateless people. As the United Nation's oldest and most prestigious humanitarian award, it serves a powerful platform to advocate for some of the most vulnerable people in the world.

Please join us in honoring the extraordinary commitment of the 2020 Laureate, Ms. Mayerlín Vergara Pérez for her decades-long work to prevent and help eradicate the sexual exploitation and trafficking of children and adolescents in North-East Colombia.

This year, due to COVID-19 restrictions, the ceremony will be a virtual event featuring performances by notable UNHCR supporters and remarks by influencers in the humanitarian field, with an Avant-Premiere screening at the UNHCR's Executive Committee on 5 October at 17:30 CET

The official Award Ceremony be livestreamed in English and Spanish on October 5th, at 18:30 CET on UNHCR's YouTube channels:
