Three years have passed since the launch of the revised Policy on UNHCR's Engagement in Situations of Internal Displacement. Significant changes within the organization have taken place, resulting in strengthened coordination leadership and operational implementation by UNHCR. During this side event, some of the more significant advances made by the organization will be presented, which are also summarized in the report: UNHCR Engagement in Situations of Internal Displacement 2019 - 2021, to be released in September 2022.
