#RefugiArte illustrates the journey of people fleeing conflict and persecution, often risking their lives, travelling by land or sea to reach safety. Through this exhibition, Latin American artists aim to promote a positive attitude and generate empathy towards refugees. At a time of increasing displacement in the Americas, #RefugiArte comes to the Palais des Nations to help raise awareness of the protection needs of refugees and internally displaced persons. Join us on this journey #WithRefugees.

Tuesday, 2 October 2018, beginning at 9:00
Palais des Nations – Salle des Pas Perdus

(Breakfast will be provided during the launch of the exhibition.)

The exhibit will run from Monday, 1 October through Friday, 5 October 2018.
