INTRODUCTION TO UNHCR

The Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) was established on December 14, 1950, by the United Nations General Assembly. The agency is mandated to lead and coordinate international action to protect refugees and resolve refugee problems worldwide. Its primary purpose is to safeguard the rights and well-being of refugees. Additionally, it has a mandate to assist stateless people.

In more than seven decades, the agency has helped tens of millions of people restart their lives. Today, a staff of some 20,000 people in 135 countries continues to help about 89 million people¹. To help and protect some of the world’s most vulnerable people in so many places and types of environment, UNHCR must purchase goods and services worldwide.
