- Seating for the Forum will, therefore, be organized accordingly and in line with the seating arrangements for the 78th session of the United Nations General Assembly.
- After the co-host and co-convenor States, the first seat will be occupied by North Macedonia and follow in English alphabetical order. Intergovernmental organizations, United Nations entities and other entities with observer status in the General Assembly will follow.
- Other stakeholders, including representatives of academia, city networks, the private sector, non-governmental organizations, organizations led by forcibly displaced and stateless persons, religious leaders, sport organizations, refugees, and parliamentary networks, will have dedicated seating.
- Due to the size of the plenary room, seating will be limited. States will be allocated 2 seats per delegation, both at the table. Participants representing an organization invited to the GRF will have 1 seat per delegation, which will be at the table. This also applies to those attending in their individual capacity.
