

Further reading

Much of the information in this book is drawn from unpublished UNHCR documents and reports. The book has also made extensive use of the documentation available on RefWorld, the UNHCR CD-ROM (for details see below). The following bibliography identifies some of the most accessible and useful literature on the issues examined in the book. Additional sources are also cited in the endnotes to each chapter. The inclusion of any item in this bibliography does not imply its endorsement by UNHCR.

RefWorld: UNHCR's CD-ROM

RefWorld is a reference tool designed to meet the information needs of those interested in the problem of forced displacement: governments, judicial authorities, international organizations, voluntary agencies, academic institutions and legal counsel. This CD-ROM is a collection of full-text databases, updated twice a year. It provides access to the most comprehensive refugee-related information available, drawn from the most current and reliable sources.

The information available on RefWorld includes data on conditions in refugees' countries of origin; national legislation; jurisprudence; international treaties and documents on human rights and refugee law; UN General Assembly and Security Council documents; documents emanating from the UN Commission on Human Rights and its Sub-Commission; official UNHCR documents; an extensive reference library including training manuals; refugee statistics; and the library catalogue of UNHCR's Centre for Documentation and Research.

RefWorld is available on an annual subscription basis for US$250. Multiple subscriptions can be ordered at a reduced rate of $125 per year. Network licence agreements based on concurrent use are also available upon request. For more information contact the UNHCR Centre for Documentation and Research, CP 2500, CH-1211 Geneva 2, Switzerland. Fax: (41-22) 739-7367; e-mail: <cdr@unhcr.ch>.
