

Join us for the 2020 Nansen Refugee Award Ceremony

This year UNHCR, the UN Refugee Agency, is honouring a heroic woman from Latin America, who has dedicated her life to helping victims and survivors of human trafficking and sexual violence.

You're Invited

Monday, 5 October, 2020

Virtual ceremony

The Nansen Refugee Award Ceremony 2020 will be streamed online here on Monday, 5 October at 18:30 CET.

The Nansen Refugee Award

Since 1954, UNHCR's Nansen Refugee Award has been presented each year to an extraordinary individual or organization who has gone above the call of duty to help refugees, internally displaced or stateless people.

The 2020 Nansen Refugee Award laureate is an outstanding humanitarian, tireless human rights advocate and campaigner who has worked for more than 20 years on the eradication of commercial sexual exploitation of children and adolescents. This year's laureate has dedicated her life to helping young refugees and internally displaced people who have fallen prey to trafficking and those who are at risk of sexual exploitation. This year's award ceremony honours her extraordinary dedication, courage and selfless humanitarianism.

Hosted by United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, Filippo Grandi, the Nansen Refugee Award Ceremony will feature Goodwill Ambassadors, an award winning author as keynote speaker and performances by renowned entertainers, immersing the audience in stories of resilience, strength and hope.

